GRASSY CREEK

We are having plenty of rain at this time. The frowns of the farmers have turned to smiles, but should the rain continue long the frowns will return. The farmers have been taking advantage of the dry weather and have their crops in a splendid shape.

Ben Murphy and Jim Lytle passed thru yesterday with a drove of sheep.

Mrs. Maggie Nickell who has been on the sick list for awhile seems to be improving.

Jno. M. Lykins has been employed to teach the Grassy Lick school.

Some of our merchants are objecting to Judge Womack's way of executing the law, because he says it is a violation of the law to sell goods on Sunday. So on the same basis did King Herod get angry at John the Baptist just because he told him that it was a violation of Moses' law for him to marry his brother's wife.

Some of our officers made a wry face when the judge said that it was not lawful for the Fiscal court to raise their salaries above what they agreed to serve the people for. When men become candidates for office it is reasonable to suppose that they fully understand what the office will pay. This being the case, they run for office expecting to get the full amount of the salary, no more nor no less.
Then for officers after elected to make a strike for an increase in their salaries, shows greed, and a disposition to back down from their contract with the people.
No wonder Judge Hannah said that it wasn't lawful, we all say it. We to the man in the future that made such an unlawful demand on our Fiscal court, or the justice who voted for such a proposition. They will hear of that later on.

We wonder if the grand jury will make an effort to bring vote sellers to justice this session?
There is no violation of the law so prevalent in this country as vote selling and there is nothing so disastrous and misleading in its nature. Some will say, "I don't know who they are." I think that I can tell you how to find them out—just announce yourself as a candidate for some office and they will hunt you up and not talk long before they will ask you if you have a dollar or two that you will loan them for a few days. That is a proposition to sell out and there is nothing left to do but to hand it over, so you have got one. He is called the cheap kind. Another kind, a little more experienced, will tell you that they own a large farm and have a number of renters that are un-expressed and that with fifteen or twenty dollars, can carry the whole thing. So he gets the candidates money and goes to every public gathering, buys all the drinks he needs, smokes his ten cent cigars and perhaps buy a gallon or so of whisky and treat the fellows that he has wholesaled with himself, and pockets the remainder. Some big, smart dudes will sell men out by the boundary, sometimes for as much as one thousand dollars and propose to deliver the goods on election day. That is indirect vote selling. They all sell but one man gets the money. You must understand that these things don't all happen in the heads of branches, you will find them everywhere and in every profession. They are becoming very bold—it would surprise you to hear the true testimony of some of these vote dealers. Men that we would not suspect of such a crime.
Let's take pattern after Ohio and go after them without gloves.

Fairplay.

To the

DEMOCRATS

Of Morgan County:

We beg you to remember that on

SATURDAY, July 1, 1911

a Primary Election will be held in every county in Kentucky to nominate a candidate for U. S. Senator, Governor, and all State officers and in this District, for the Legislature.

We have made a diligent inquiry and find the Democrats of Morgan county practically unanimous for the Hon. Jas. B. McCreary for Governor and we trust that you will each remember him and make it unanimous.

We hope that you will feel enough interest in the future of Kentucky, to be at your voting place on the 1st day of July and help us nominate this great, good man for Governor.

AMOS DAVIS, Chairman,
J. W. PERRY,
M. T. WOMACK,
S. R. COLLIER,
J. H. SEBASTIAN.

Jo. M. KENDALL, Sec. McCreary Cam. Com.
(Please post at voting place.)

DINGUS.

For the second time our letter found a secure abode in the waste basket. We suppose the cause for this was the failure of the Courier to appear regularly.

We are sorry to hear that Mr.
Caraway has retired from the newspaper business, and hope that he may find some occupation suitable to his health.

Ollie Pelfrey, of Elkfork, of Miss Martha Williams, of Din-gus, was married June 16. Rev.
Ferguson spoke the word that made them man and wife.

We are having plenty of rain.
Corn looks well, oats are a failure.

Judge Ferguson and Dr. Wheeler, of West Liberty, was here on business Saturday.

A. J. Williams and family visited at Lacy creek Sunday.

J. P. Haney attended Squire Blevins' last term of court. Some of the boys who had been arrested for disturbing public worship found pleasure in running off and were given some heavy fines.

The trustees of division 4 met last Saturday at the mouth of Coffee creek for the purpose of selecting teachers for the various schools. After the ballot was over and the teachers informed of their places it seemed that there was some dissatisfaction, and a general distaste against the new method of employing teachers.

SLAB.

INDEX.

A number of young ladies of Wellsville attended church at Sycamore Grove Sunday.

We were at West Liberty Monday and listened to the instruction of the grand jury. If the vote selling probe isn't started it will be not fault of the court.
